

In recognition of National Healthcare Decision Day (April 16)

Chinese American Coalition for Compassionate Care Hosts an Essay Contest

Saying Goodbye with Love

Whether we like it or not, life and death is the law of nature and the human condition. How does one say goodbye with love? How does one start the conversation about end-of-life wishes with family members and loved ones?

Please join our contest and share your story.

【Who should participate】 : Any United States resident. Guardian's signature required for entrants under age 18. Limit one entry per person.

【Participation Categories】 : General Public and Healthcare Providers

【Essay Format】 : Typed in English or Chinese, double space, 12 pt font, 1000 words or less

【How essays will be judged】 : Theme 25%, Content 25%, Structure 25%, and Originality and Creativity 25%

【Awards】 : First Prize: $300; 1st Runner Up: $200; 2nd Runner Up: $100
Honorable Mention: $50

【Deadline】 : Emailed by Sunday, 4/30/17 at 11:59 Pacific Time

【How to enter】 : Please download and complete Registration Form and for full essay contest details and criteria, visit: www.caccc-usa.org/essaycontest
Email completed form and final essay to: essaycontest@caccc-usa.org

美華慈心關懷聯盟

Chinese American Coalition
for Compassionate Care

www.caccc-usa.org